RE/MAX Commercial Jumps in Industry Ranking Annual Survey Showcases Top Performing Brokerages

DENVER – For the fifth consecutive year, RE/MAX Commercial® is ranked in the National Real Estate Investor (NREI) magazine’s 2015 Top Brokers list. RE/MAX Commercial moved up two spots compared to its ranking last year.

“To be included in NREI’s Top Brokers list is an incredible way to celebrate our associates’ achievements and helps strengthen the RE/MAX Commercial brand among the industry’s leading firms,” said Jon Danton, RE/MAX Commercial Brand Manager. “We’re proud of all our practitioners’ accomplishments and look to maintain this momentum as we continue to grow.”

The RE/MAX Commercial division ranked above prominent competitors such as Sperry Van Ness International and Coldwell Banker Commercial. The division also reported more than double KW Commercial’s total global transaction value.

The annual brokers list is created from responses to NREI’s Top Brokers survey, distributed earlier this year. Brokers were asked to provide information about total leasing transactions and investment sales volume in 2014. Additional details were also requested, such as the number of individual brokers employed and total number of transactions completed in 2014.

In 2014, RE/MAX Commercial reported $9.8 billion in total sales volume resulting in a 12 percent increase compared to the previous year. The division also had a healthy 21 percent increase in number of transactions during the same time period. RE/MAX Commercial began 25 years ago and now has over 3,000 practitioners in more than 45 countries.
